

Niclas Knudsen – Guitar Inferno

Danish guitarist and composer Niclas Knudsen is well-known in the Danish music scene. He has played with among others Adam Nussbaum, John Tchicai, David Liebman, Ray Anderson, Billy Preston and Tom Jones and has set his mark on among other bands the trio Ibrahim Electric.

It has for a long time been a great dream for him to mix all the musical genres he has been involved with during the last 10 years. He has studied with Wishwa Mohan Bhatt in India, studied tres in Cuba, played and studied afro-guitar in Mali and Burkina Faso, toured in Brasil and has been listening intensively to Andalusian guitar music.

He has now realised this dream and recorded a new CD "Niclas Knudsen – Guitar Inferno", which will be released 9th of april 2016

Niclas has carefully hand-picked three of his favourite musicians to create a band that embraces all these musical genres.

Nordic sounds, African rhythms, Indian ragas, and American spirituals mixes into a playful musical melting pot.

The band is:

Niclas Knudsen: Guitar, Tres(Cuban Guitar), Weissenborn (Hawaian Lap-guitar) og Mohan Weena (Indian slide guitar)

Jacob Christoffersen: Keyboards and Piano

Fredrik Damsgaard : Bass

Mads Andersen : Drums
